

John Keats A Literary Life

R. S. White

palgrave
macmillan

PAPERBACK LAUNCH
SPECIAL OFFER
€20.40

At the heart of this 'Literary Life' are fresh interpretations of Keats's most loved poems, alongside other neglected but rich poems. The readings are placed in the context of his letters to family and friends, his medical training, radical politics of the time, his love for Fanny Brawne, his coterie of literary figures and his tragic early death.

'A great strength of this impressive biography is the way it accompanies Keats's life narrative with critical and interpretative passages on the poetry - there is much in these pages that will provoke thought for students and more experienced Keatsians.'

Professor Nicholas Roe,
University of St. Andrews, UK

'...makes significant contributions at the most advanced level of research and, at the other end of the scale, would be an excellent introduction for college undergraduates and general readers... a fine piece of research and writing.'

Jack Stillinger,
New Books Online

'The book, a most welcome addition to the literature on John Keats, is certain to draw a wide and appreciative audience.'

Peter Otto,
Australian Book Review

'R.S. White has written a focused, concise and perceptive biography of John Keats for Palgrave Macmillan's Literary Lives, which will stand readers of the poetry in good stead for years to come...'

Duncan Wu,
Times Higher Education

'Elegantly written and expertly crafted, R. S. White's John Keats: A Literary Life aims to redress just this kind of imbalance between biography and critical commentary, not only managing to synthesise the most innovative current criticism on Keats's life and work in less than 300 pages, but also establishing a fresh set of contexts with which to read them.'

Porscha Fermanis
British Association for Romantic Studies

Official book launch at the Keats-Shelley House, Piazza di Spagna 26, Rome.
Meet the author and enjoy a glass of prosecco on our terrace overlooking the Spanish Steps

Saturday 11 August, 16.00
Tickets €4.50 (€3.50 for under 18s and over 65s)

Space is limited so please call to reserve your place on 06 678 4235 or email info@keats-shelley-house.org